

Don't take away competition in telecommunications and feed the public to the lions.